To the Evaluator: The above-named student is applying to study abroad through the Lasallian International Programs Consortium (LIPC) and has listed you as a reference. LIPC policy requires all students applying for study abroad to obtain letters of recommendation from two University faculty members testifying to the applicant's intellectual and emotional readiness for study abroad. The Lasallian International Programs Consortium will appreciate a frank appraisal on your part of the applicant, particularly with regard to the applicant's ability to successfully carry out her or his studies in a foreign environment.

Thank you for taking the time to assist the Lasallian International Programs Consortium in the evaluation and placement of this student.

- If the applicant has waived the rights (see above) to review this reference, it will be kept confidential. If not, the applicant has a right to request access to it.
- Please use extra sheets if more space is needed.
- This two-page form must be returned, in its entirety, to the applicant in a signature-sealed envelope.
